Final screen set - Direction D3 (Split)

42 frames: style guide, 34 desktop screens (1440 px) and 7 mobile screens (375 px). Each page shows one frame at reduced scale with a description of what it contains. All UI text is in English. Colours are exactly the agreed palette; role colour (green for learners, blue for teachers) is used only as accents on that role's screens.

📍 Lisbon, Portugal

🌐 English (C2), Ukrainian (Native), Portuguese (B1)

About me

I’m an English teacher from Lviv, now living in Lisbon. For seven years I’ve helped adults speak English with confidence at work and while travelling. My lessons are conversation-first: we practise real situations — interviews, meetings, small talk — and I give clear, kind feedback with a short written summary after each lesson. Before teaching full time, I worked in HR for an international company, so I know what interviewers look for.

About me *

I'm an English teacher from Lviv, now living in Lisbon. For seven years I've helped adults speak English with confidence at work and while travelling. My lessons are conversation-first: we practise real situations — interviews, meetings, small talk — and I give clear, kind feedback.
